Gearing up

FOR THE FUTURE

LOOKING IN

Lines have blurred between school and work

- ⚙️ Work-integrated and experiential learning have changed how youth and those in transition experience the world of work
- ⚙️ Destinations change and the journey is not always clear, but understanding yourself and your toolkit can guide your decisions along the way

LOOKING OUT

Change is the new normal in the “world of work”

- ⚙️ Disruptive technology and changes in demand for labour are constantly impacting the world of work
- ⚙️ You will need to understand and monitor these shifts and explore all of your options as you plan for and connect to the labour market

Take action to manage your own learning and career in the new “world of work”
