

WHO CAN HELP

OTTAWA NETWORK FOR EDUCATION

WHAT THEY OFFER

Ottawa Network for Education (ONFE) No other community organization in Ottawa has the same reach and ability to deliver much-needed programs directly to schools. In fact, 81% of public schools in Ottawa have one or more ONFE programs on site. ONFE delivers programming in three priority areas to support students through learning, health and well-being and career readiness pillars.

✓ Community Engagement and Corporate Visibility

Eligibility criteria may apply.

Key Programs & Services for Employers

Employer Connections

- Connects educators, students and employers. Creates awareness of local employers and career options in the Ottawa market.
- Events are scheduled throughout the school year. You can participate and represent your company/profession. By contributing a couple of hours of your time, you can have an impact on the workforce of the future, educating youth about jobs and the type of skills needed for the future.
- JA Programs are excellent team-building and community giveback opportunities for organizations looking to increase staff engagement.

JA Ottawa

Volunteer

- Students who have a positive experience in school are more likely to complete high school and pursue post-secondary studies. You could be the positive influence that has a lasting impact on a child.

Become a Corporate Partner

- Discover how our programs align with your corporate values – and help local students soar.
- Our corporate partners play a significant role in ensuring our financial stability. They also share our vision for the future and want to invest in programs that will equip today's students with the skills, experience, and knowledge they'll need to succeed in post-secondary education and fulfilling careers. Connect with us to discover the partnership opportunity that is right for you.

CONNECT NOW

Cathie Edmond, Program Manager, Employer Connections
613-366-3085 (x261)
cedmond@onfe-ropc.ca

